Author of "A Journey in the Seaboard Sizev States," "A Journey in Texas," "Walks and Talks of an American Farmer in England," etc.

42 pp. 12mo. Cloth. Price $125.

This volume completes the series of "Our Slave States," in which the object of the author has been to describe what was most interesting, amusing, and instructive to him during a journey of fourteen months through these States, undertaken for the purpose of studying the characteristics of the country and people. A keen and imparitial observer, and a very greeful and attractive writer, he is acknowledged to have presented in the previous volumes of this series the most intelligent and interesting account of the region they represent that has yet been given to the public. The present volume, embracing the interior Slave States, completes the account.

MONDAY EVENING, Sept. 10,
and continue open Four Weeks.
All articles intended for competition must be deposited by SATURDAY, Sept. 8.
This Exhibition is open to all articles of American production, and the Committee hope that contributors will make this display a true index of our country's progress in the march of civilization.
The premium list will be large, consisting of more than 100 Gold and Silver Medals, independent of Diplomas and such special awards as may hereafter be determined.
The change in opening the Exhibition has been made to give non-residents an opportunity of visiting the U. S. Fair, which will be held in Cincinnati from the light to the 90th of September, at the same time. They can attend the U. S. Fair during the day and our Exhibition in the Evening, when, being brilliantly illuminated, it can be seen to the best advantage.
